DIVISION ONE

B149988	People v. Wishum	(Not for Publication)
B156434	In re Wishum on Habeas Corpus

The judgment is vacated and the cause is remanded with directions to the trial court to conduct an in camera hearing on defendant's discovery motion consistent with this opinion and applicable statutory provisions, including Evidence Code section 1045. If the hearing reveals no discoverable information in the records of Detectives Kris Allshouse and Sean Hunt -- properly requested under relevant statutory and case authority -- which would lead to admissible evidence helpful to the defense, the trial court shall reinstate the original judgment. If the in camera hearing reveals discoverable information which could lead to admissible evidence helpful to defendant in defense of the charge, the trial court shall grant discovery (making a record of what documents are presented pursuant to People v. Mooc, supra, 26 Cal.4th at pages 1227-1232), allow defendant an opportunity to demonstrate prejudice, and order a new trial if prejudice is demonstrated. If prejudice is not demonstrated, the trial court is to reinstate the original judgment. (People v. Hustead (1999) 74 Cal.App.4th 410, 419-423.) The petition for a writ of habeas corpus is denied.
